I declare that all information provided is true and correct in every particular.

Evidence required

The following evidence must be lodged with this application:

In every case, please lodge:

- a copy of the constitution, memorandum and articles of association, rules etc of the body corporate, society, institution or other organisation detailing its objectives
- any other information such as promotional material explaining the objects and activities of the body corporate, society, institution or other organisation.

If applying to be approved for the time being under section 275 (3)(a), please lodge:

- evidence that the body corporate, society, institution or other organisation's resources are used wholly or predominantly for the promotion of education in Australia or the relief of poverty in Australia or both, including details of any current or proposed transactions being undertaken by the society or institution.

If applying for exemption of an instrument or transaction under section 275 (3)(b) or 275A, please lodge:

- a copy of the relevant instrument(s)
- the original instrument effecting the relevant transaction
- any other information such as promotional material for the transaction for which exemption is claimed
- in the case of a partial exemption, evidence of the extent of use or proposed use for exempt purposes (such as an estimate of the proportion of the total area to be used for exempt purposes).

Notes:

1. Exempt charitable or benevolent body under section 275 (3)(a) means any body corporate, society, institution or other organisation for the time being approved by the Chief Commissioner whose resources are, in accordance with the rules and objects, used predominantly for the relief of poverty in Australia or promotion of education in Australia.
2. Exempt charitable or benevolent body under section 275 (3)(b) and 275A means any body corporate, society, or institution or other organisation that in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner is of a charitable or benevolent nature or whose primary object is the promotion of the interests of Aborigines, and if the dutiable transaction or instrument is for exempt purposes.
3. An institution is an establishment, organisation or association created for the promotion of a specified object. A trustee acting alone in exercising the powers conferred by the trust deed is not an institution.
4. The body corporate, society, institution or other organisation must be a non-profit organisation.
5. Exempt purposes under section 275 (3)(b) and 275A means:
 - the relief of poverty
 - the relief and prevention of sickness and disability
 - the relief of suffering and distress caused by old age
 - the promotion of education
 - the establishment of organisations to assist sections of the community with special needs
 - the relief of distress caused by natural disasters or sudden catastrophes.
6. Other guidelines for approved exempt purposes include:
 - property purchased to be let or sold for profit is not eligible, but donated property can be sold if the proceeds will be applied to a specific proposal that is for approved exempt purposes
 - property acquired as the headquarters of the organisation is eligible if used for continuing charitable or benevolent work
 - property purchased by a religious organisation must be used for approved charitable and benevolent purposes of the organisation and not for predominantly religious purposes.
