Notes

1. Under Sections 138 and 142(1) of the Duties Act 1997 this statement is required whenever a NSW company allots shares to a person at another person's direction, in discharge of an obligation to that other person, whether that obligation arises as consideration for the purchase of property by the company or otherwise. (The expression 'NSW company' is defined in the Dictionary in the Duties Act 1997.) Under Section 142(2) the statement must be lodged within 3 months after the shares are allotted.
2. Under Section 144 of the Duties Act 1997 this statement is chargeable with duty at the rate set out in Section 33 in respect of a transfer of marketable securities on the dutiable value of the shares allotted. ('Dutiable value' is defined in Section 21(1).) Under Section 141 the duty is payable by the person to whom the relevant shares are allotted. Under Section 139 the liability to duty arises when the shares are allotted, but under Section 140 a tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if the duty is paid within 3 months of that date. If the shares of the NSW company are not quoted on the market operated by the Australian Stock Exchange lodge a copy of the most recent set of accounts for the company. An accountant's valuation of the shares allotted may be required.
