Notes

1. Under Section 125(1) of the Duties Act 1997 a 'capital reduction' means (a) the redemption, surrender or cancellation of a share (including cancellation as part of a buy-back of shares in accordance with Division 4B of Part 2.4 of the Corporations Law), or (b) a reduction in the paid up value of a share.
2. Under Section 125(1) of the Duties Act 1997 a 'rights alteration', in relation to voting shares, means a variation, abrogation or alteration of rights relating to the shares.
3. A 'dutiable entitlement' is defined in Sections 125(1) and 129(1) of the Duties Act 1997. Under Section 125(2) if voting shares acquired by associated persons severally do not, but taken in the aggregate would, confer a dutiable entitlement, the voting shares acquired by the associated persons are aggregated and are taken to confer the entitlement on the associated person who last acquired any of those voting shares. The expression 'associated person' is defined in the Dictionary in the Duties Act 1997.
4. If the public company's shares are not quoted on the market operated by the Australian Stock Exchange, lodge a certified copy of the most recent set of accounts for the company. An accountant's valuation of the shares may be required, but if one has already been obtained lodge a copy of it with this statement.
5. Under Section 131 of the Duties Act 1997 duty is assessed on whichever is the greater of (i) the total of the unencumbered value, immediately prior to each relevant capital reduction and/or rights alteration, of the shares the subject of the capital reduction and/or rights alteration or (ii) the consideration, if any, for the capital reduction and/or rights alteration. The rate of duty is 30c for every $100, or part, of such amount, in the case of a company whose shares are quoted on the market operated by the Australian Stock Exchange, or 60c per $100, or part, of such amount where the shares in the company are not so quoted.
