Eligible purchasers

An eligible purchaser is a purchaser who has not, and whose spouse has not:

- at any time owned (either solely or with someone else) residential property in Australia other than property owned solely as trustee or executor
- previously received an exemption or concession under the First Home—New Home scheme.

Note: If the spouse of a purchaser has previously owned residential property or previously received an exemption or concession under the First Home—New Home scheme, the purchaser is not eligible for the full or proportionate concession regardless of whether the spouse is or is not also a purchaser.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for First Home—New Home:

- at least one eligible purchaser must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident at the date of the agreement or transfer
- eligible purchasers must together acquire an interest of at least 50 per cent.

Note: If persons who are not eligible purchasers are acquiring more than 5 per cent but not more than 50 per cent, the concession is reduced in proportion to the interest acquired by the person(s) who are not eligible purchasers.

Residence requirement

- The home must be occupied by at least one of the eligible purchasers as his or her principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months after completion of the agreement or transfer. Where at least one eligible purchaser was a member of the permanent forces of the Australian Defence Force and all eligible purchasers were enrolled on the NSW electoral roll as at the date of the agreement or transfer, the residence requirement does not apply
