Your obligations

As an applicant for the First Home Owner Grant (New Homes), you must ensure that the information contained in your application is complete and correct.

It is an offence for a person to make a false or misleading statement when applying for the grant. Therefore, if you are unsure about any of your obligations or the information that is required in the application, it is important that you consult our website or contact us for clarification. Please refer to page 21 for our contact details.

If your application is approved and the grant paid, you will be notified in writing of the conditions you are required to satisfy, including the residence requirements.

If you are unable to satisfy any of these conditions, you must notify the Commissioner within the required timeframe and repay the grant. If you do not meet these obligations, you may be subject to penalties.

Penalties

As part of its role in administering the First Home Owner Grant and Shared Equity Act 2000 (the Act), Revenue NSW checks all applications and conducts ongoing investigations to ensure that applicants comply with the conditions of the Act. If applicants receive the grant when they are not entitled, or do not comply with the residence requirements, penalties up to 100 per cent may be imposed.

Providing incorrect or misleading information

Providing incorrect or misleading information to Revenue NSW is a criminal offence. If it is determined that an applicant has provided incorrect or misleading information to obtain, or attempt to obtain, the grant then prosecution action may be commenced.

All applications undergo a rigorous review where applicants are checked for former home ownership in NSW and interstate. Other checks into spouse/de facto partner status, council records, title information and finance particulars are undertaken on a routine basis.

Common errors and misunderstandings

Some of the common errors and misunderstandings identified by Revenue NSW compliance activity are outlined below. This information is provided to assist you to understand and meet your obligations.

Guide to completing the application

The first home owner grant application form has eight sections. These sections must be completed as follows:

01 Eligibility criteria

Answer questions 1 to 7 by crossing the relevant 'yes' or 'no' box. The answers are designed to establish that the applicant(s) for the grant meet the eligibility criteria.

All persons with a relevant interest (refer to terms used) in the property, and any spouse/partner of these persons, must be considered when answering these questions.

In exceptional circumstances, the Commissioner may use discretion in relation to the eligibility criteria. Please contact Revenue NSW for further information.

All decisions relating to the eligibility of an applicant are made by the Commissioner and are determined on the facts and circumstances as at the commencement date of the eligible transaction.

02 Applicant details

Detail the number of persons with a relevant interest. All persons who have, or will have, a relevant interest in the property must record their details in this section.

If there are more than two applicants, an additional application will need to be completed and attached to the application form.

If an applicant has a spouse/partner, there are two options. If your spouse/partner is an applicant, they must be recorded within this section. If your spouse/partner is not an applicant, they are required to complete the details in section 3 of the application form.

Please nominate a postal address for correspondence to be sent on behalf of all applicants.

03 Spouse/partner details

This section must be completed where the spouse/partner of an applicant has not been specified in section 2 as an applicant (and therefore will have no relevant interest in the residential property). If this section is required to be completed the spouse/partner must complete the declaration in section 7.

04 Property and transaction details

Provide the address and current title (folio identifier number) details of the property. The folio identifier number can be obtained from the transfer document, a title search or the contract for sale. If the folio identifier number is unavailable, enter the parent title folio identifier number.

Provide the expected date of occupancy as owner of the home. Estimate this date if you are unsure or leave blank if the Australian Defence Force residence.

05 Payment details

Applicants must complete this section only if applying through Revenue NSW.

You must nominate an account to receive funds electronically (EFT). The account can belong to a person who is not an applicant.

Payment of the grant will be made into the nominated bank account. Provide details of the name of the financial institution, account name, BSB, and account number. Failure to provide correct details will cause delays in payment of the grant.

If you are applying through an approved agent, leave payment details blank.

06 Privacy Collection notice

Summary of the data being collected and the purpose for which it is being collected.

07 Declaration by Applicant(s) and Spouse/Partner(s)

All applicants, spouse/partners must complete this declaration and have read and understood all the details completed on the application form.

08 Supporting documentation checklist

Please supply the required documents with your application and check off the documents attached.

Failure to produce the relevant documentation will result in delays in processing.

SECTION 6 Privacy collection notice

Revenue NSW is collecting your personal information for the purpose of administering the First Home Owner Grant under the First Home Owner Grant and Shared Equity Act 2000.

Revenue NSW gives priority to protecting the privacy of your personal information. We do this by handling personal information in a responsible manner and in accordance with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002.

Revenue NSW is collecting your personal information for the following purposes:

- Processing your application and determining eligibility for the First Home Owner (New Homes) Grant
- Providing you with further information about the First Home Owner (New Homes) Grant
- Other directly related purposes including auditing, reporting and compliance.

To determine, audit or review your eligibility we may need to collect, access and exchange your personal information to verify your proof of identity information with document issuing authorities, other State, Territory and Australian Government agencies and commercial organisations as permitted by law.

The information will be stored on the First Home Owner Grant national database, and your application will be retained by either Revenue NSW or your approved agent

Revenue NSW may share de-identified information for research and statistical purposes in accordance with the Data Sharing (Government Sector) Act 2015.

Revenue NSW will only collect such information that is reasonably necessary to provide you the required service and assistance as required by the First Home Owner Grant and Shared Equity Act 2000.

Revenue NSW will not provide your personal information to third parties for any purposes not already stated in this privacy notice, or to which you have not otherwise consented, unless Revenue NSW is required, or authorised, by law to do so. This may include disclosure to other government agencies and partners. Disclosure may also be made to law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies, or as required by law.

Revenue NSW will take reasonable security measures to protect your personal information from loss, unauthorised access, use, modification, disclosure, or other misuse. Physical measures, such as building and equipment security, are used in conjunction with digital technology, such as data encryption and firewalls, to minimise unauthorised access to information.

You may ask for access to the information we hold about you at any time and request to update, correct or amend your personal information by calling 1300 130 624.

For further details about how Revenue NSW collects and manages personal information, how you can access and correct it, raise concerns about an alleged breach of privacy law or other relevant legislation, or to make a privacy complaint, please visit Revenue NSW Privacy or email RNSWPrivacy@revenue.nsw.gov.au
