

Employment Agency Contracts – Chain of On-hire Declaration

Note:

- An employment agency contract is a contract under which a person (employment agent) procures the services of another person (service provider) for a client of the employment agent. Such a contract could be formal or informal and could be expressly made or implied.
- A 'chain of on-hire' occurs when an employment agent on-hires a service provider to another employment agent who in turn on-hires the service provider to its client.
- Division 8 of Part 3 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007 (the Act) imposes payroll tax on wages paid by employment agents to staff on-hired under employment agency contracts.
- Revenue Ruling PTA 027 states that where there is a chain of on-hire, the employment agent (Agent 2) closest to the ultimate client of the service provider is liable for payroll tax on the payment(s) made to Agent 1.
- This declaration is to be made by the employment agent (Agent 2) who is the closest to the ultimate client of the labour provided by the service provider. Please read Revenue Ruling PTA 027 carefully before completing this form.
- This declaration must be kept by Agent 1 for five years. Agent 1 must ensure that this declaration can be readily produced upon request by Revenue NSW.
- Under the anti-avoidance provisions in section 42 of the Act, the Chief Commissioner of Revenue NSW may impose a payroll tax liability on any party to the employment agency arrangement if this declaration is incorrectly made.
